THE Paducah Standard commends one feature of the campaign in that district, and it is a feature that ought to be ob served in every district-that of respectful attention to the speakers of both parties. Gen. Rosecrans on Blaine Being a Liv-The Standard says: "With few exceptions throughout the district, respectful attention has been paid to both candidates, and courtesy extended alike. There seems to be a disposition to listen to both sides and form an opinion after an intelligent understanding of the subject. This, we say, is commendable. A 'hurrah' campaign does not have a tendency to make men reason, and calm, dispassionate reason is the only way by which our muddle can be settled. If a man doesn't believe as you do he cannot be turned by an abuse of his views. Let us have a campaign of reason."

he says that he proposed to Mr. Ballentine to make a test of their real strength in the convention, and that the one found to be the weakest should retire. This proposi-tion was not accepted, and now Col. Cox, unwilling, as he says, to continue a deadlock which will result in no nomination or in the nomination of some one not openly seeking the office, retires from the race. This action leaves Col. Ballentine the only proneunced candidate before the people, although there are other gentlemen ready to receive the honor of a nomination if it can be secured. It is not unlikely that the withdrawal of Col. Cox will result in a combination to defeat Ballentine, or that Col. Cox's friends may again place his name before the convention which meets on the 8th of October. There are a great many possibilities in a political con-vention, and the public does not always know what is brewing in the political pot.

Washington, September 26.—The acting Secretary of the Treasury this afternoon issued a call for the redemption of $10,000,000 bonds of the three per cent. loan of 1882, principal and accrued interest to be paid the 1st of November next. The following are the original numbers of the called bonds: $50, Nos. 304 to 306, both inclusive; $100, Nos. 2205 to 2255, both inclusive, and Nos. 9549 to 9563, both inclusive; $500, Nos. 1091 to 1114, both inclusive; $1000, Nos. 4025 to 4047, both inclusive; $1000, Nos. 10,031 to 10,619, both inclusive, and Nos. 22,914 to 23,010, both clusive, and Nos. 22,914 to 23,010, both inclusive; $10,000, Nos. 18,365 to 19,337, both inclusive; total, $10,000,000.

The Harvest in Europe. Washington, September 26.—Frank S. Mason, United States consul at Marseilles the same as in 1882, with the difference that there existed then no large available surplus from the preceding crop, a circumstance which now must be taken into serious consideration. We may, besides, observe that even if the present crop is by fifteen to twenty per cent. inferior to that of 1882, Europe will stand in less need than last year for foreign produce. There is no probability that prices of cereals will rise to the rates of two years ago."

Washington, September 26.—Seth W Tuley, alias Philip Nolan, a postoffice de Tuley, alias Philip Nolan, a postoffice department clerk, was arrested yesterday on the charge of violating the bankrupt law of Indiana. After his arrest it was learned that he is wanted in Indiana to answer another charge, that of attempting to defraud an insurance company. It is said that seven or eight years ago Tuley insured his life in the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Milwaukee, for $8000, and after paying two or three premiums disappeared; that shortly afterward his wife moved from Indianapolis, where they had been living, to New Albany, and they had been living, to New Albany, and from the last named place filed application for the payment of her husband's insurance, accompanying the application with what purported to be proof of his having been drowned while crossing a creek, and of the interment of his remains at New Albany; that the insurance company was about to pay the policy on Tuley's life, when they learned that he had been seen subsequently to the date of his all

It will act, we hope, as the first step toward leading Papists to a sense of the delusions under which they labor, and of the errors in which they believe. Archbishop Hughes, who rules the destinies of the Catholic hierarchy in the Empire State, is a bold, unscrupulous man, and his machinations unscrupulous man, and his machinations and plottings have given him a disgrace-ful prominence in all the struggles that have taken place between the corrupt clergy on the one hand and the rights of every province with schools of their own.

And those private schools were well filled when the government godless schools were nearly empty—some teachers actnaily had no more than their own

But when the Liberal party went on boldly with tyrannical and oppressive laws, the people overthrew them radically but lawfully at the polls. And having now the government again in their own hands, reformed the laws according to entire justice, leaving the conscience of the hostile Liberals free. But here is an article from T.
F. Mahar, D.D., in the Universe Cleveland:

Our readers have noticed during the last few days cablegrams announcing disturbances made by the Liberals in Belgium for the purpose of preventing the royal sanction of an educational bill recently passed by the legislative chambers of that country. These Liberals form a small portion of the recognition of the recognition. organizations, they succeeded in imposing on that Catholic country an educational system greviously unjust to Catholics. The last elections turned the tables partly. The Catholics triumphed, the main issue being the educational question.

That a great Catholic majority can be so frequently overawed and iniquitous measures passed, can only be explained by the fact of utter unscrupulousness of the other party. The offi ers of the company say the assignment was caused by the pressure of a few small creditors who threatened to attach, and it was thought best to assign to protect all alike. President Filley feels certain of being able to resume in a very abort time.

SIXTH YEAR OPENS OCTOBER 1, '84. LOUISVILLE, September 26.—The excitement over the Newcomb-Buchanan failure is on the wane, and is succeeded by a spirit of quiet investigation. Most of the foreign holders of the firm's paper who were here yesterday busily engaged in looking up the whisky on which they held receipts went away last night, a majority of them satisfied that their property was actually in existence. Nothing has been heard of the whereabouts of the Buchanans, and it is their absence which has caused the apprehensions of the public to be so grave. famous pupil of CARLYLE PETERSILEA, of Boston Pirector of the Cologne Conservatory of Musi-Germany; and Director of the Leipsic Conservatory of Music. *9. San Francisco, September 26.—Judge Field to-day, in the Chinese habeas corpus case, on argument before him, expressed a verbal opinion that the intention of Congress in passing the Chinese amended act in 1884 was excluded from the pale of evidence, thus shutting out all Chinese who left the United States previous to the passage of the act of 1882. Judges Sawyer, Hoffman and Sabin had previously ruled otherwise.
